

Financial Lines

Preferred premium and claims process flow

Checklist for Multinational Programs

Program Design & Execution Exposure Details - Financial Lines List of countries & number of local policies requested Turnover, assets or headcounts per country Limits/sub-limits & deductibles ☐ China: turnover for cyber / assets for other lines Local currency and exchange rates (default: Oanda) Description of insured's business for PI Placements Local name & contact details of insured & broker, incl. Loss history incl. number of claims per year address & email address Third-Party Reinsurance Additional named insured incl. address ☐ Signed reinsurance document, unamended and incl. Premium billing (default: local currency & local AIG's terms & conditions and addenda (e.g. Australia) collection) Reinsurance invoice incl. bank details ☐ Specific local certificate requirements ☐ Details of maxmium requested capacity per Provisional premium allocation carrier & layer Brokerage commission on local policies Panel (Co)reinsurance details - specific carrier branch, paper name and address Pre-Inception Considerations Admitted vs. non-admitted insurance Captive Fronting Cash before cover Audited financials of the captive and the parent ☐ Local pre-issuance requirements Reinsured limits and retentions & expected premium Tariff rating requirement Captive Loss history incl. number of claims per year Local retroactive coverage (backdating) ☐ Signed AIG captive reinsurance agreement Local broker requirement ☐ Specific local coverage requests: good local standard vs. manuscript policy US policy - surplus lines / state-admitted

The ideal end-to-end timeline for optimal collaboration

Learn more on: www.aig.com/multinational

This document is for general information purposes only; the data herein is not exhaustive and subject to ongoing change. Additional account and/or country-specific information may be required